LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE

Things in Moosehood the past week have centered in watching the two sides and listening to the various styles of "bullhorns." The carnival has been a success. Probably not quite as large from a financial point of view as we would have wished, but the larger shows a nice bunch of "kale" on the right hand side. One thing has been very forcibly brought home to our people and that is the fact that Phoenix Lodge No. 708 is one fine lodge.

The grand lodge has been given a new place in the dictionary by its efforts. The tubercular condition has been almost entirely removed from its ranks. On Wednesday of the present week a dinner is to be given at the residence of W. R. Loomis, in which a few ladies and gentlemen have been invited to meet Mr. Wilson.

Fourth Degree Master R. E. Morrison has advised the members of the degree team that the fourth will probably be exempted at Santa Fe or Albuquerque on October 12 next. This will make three exemptions of the fourth degree in this district within less than one year—a record that few districts in the United States can boast. There are now nearly 200 fourth degree members in this district.

Nogales is the first city to apply for a charter for the Daughters of Isabella. The court will start with a membership of forty of the ladies of that city. From present indications there will be applications from several other cities in Arizona for charters. If the number is sufficient the national court will send a decree team to install the courts and initiate the members.

Tucson is making big preparations to entertain the delegates and visitors to the state council to be held May 3. Grand Knight J. M. Phillips of Tucson council has appointed committees to handle the reception of delegates and provide amusement for them while in the Old Pueblo.

But two months remain before the state council, and if Marcos de Niza is to show the greatest gain and record in the first council of Arizona, there must be a more lively campaign for new members. While the growth during the year has been steady there is still time for the addition of a large number of members. If you have anyone in mind who is eligible, get his name to an application blank and submit it to the council.

Brother C. T. Reddington, member of Springfield, Mo. council, and a well known attorney, was in Phoenix the past week on his way to Arizona where he will open law offices. Brother Reddington, during the short time he has been in Arizona, has decided that the southwest is the place for him.

Brother Thomas P. Keough, at one time chancellor of Marcos de Niza council, is reported to be quite ill at Palm Springs, California. He went there from Arizona some time ago, after having spent some time at Fort

Senator Frederick H. Wilson

Stanton, N. M. Brother Keough was connected with the customs service at Nogales until his health caused him to resign.

Keep this date fixed in your memory. Special meeting on March 9, and the Collins lecture at Ellis theater on March 11.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD
The Woodmen of the World have secured the armory for their big union meeting of all the camps in the valley, to be held on April 15, 1916, at which time there will be a prize contest between the different teams of the valley and several hundred dollars in prizes will be distributed. All of the teams are working hard and drilling frequently for the purpose of making a showing in the contest.

Clark A. L. Higgins has received notice of approval of the applications of a large number of candidates, and the three class will be initiated next Wednesday night. Hon. R. A. Davis and Thomas W. Nealon have been invited by the Casa Grande camp to attend an open meeting there on the 8th of this month, and a large crowd from that section is expected to be in attendance. Quite a number of visitors from all-around attended the meeting of the camp last Monday night.

Arrangements are being made to have one of the early meetings in the future conducted by the officers of the lodge who were in office when the camp was granted its first charter, more than twenty years ago.

MARICOPA HIVE NO. 4
The Woman's Benefit association of the Maricopa held their regular review Friday evening at 8 o'clock, with Lady Commander Rosa G. Boido and officers at their stations. The usual order of business was taken up, five names having been acted upon, and will be initiated with axes about the 15th of April, when Tempe Review No. 1 will assist with the initiation.

There is a dispensation pending that will well pay any one desiring benefits. Mrs. Sara Denning at 1915 West Adams will gladly give you any information desired. You will find her ever ready to explain any part, there being several benefits.

The next regular review will be held Friday, March 10, Moose hall, at 8 p. m. Visiting members are always invited.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS
The visiting committee reported sick brothers cutting on Monday. Under "For the good of the order" Grand Chancellor Tom W. Smith was requested to take the chair and present to W. R. Christie the jewel of past chancellor. As usual, Brother Smith did justice to himself in the way of a good talk on the subject, and P. C. Christie gave response in a very appropriate talk.

We were entertained by talks from visiting brothers W. H. Lawson of Phoenix, Richard and F. H. Wilson of Kansas City.

Other items of interest to the lodge were discussed at length and disposed of. The application of C. A. Tol was balloted on and he was duly elected to membership.

K. & L. OF SECURITY
Phoenix Council No. 2225, K. & L. of Security, attended in a body at the first annual meeting of the newly formed Mesa council last Wednesday evening, March 1st. There was an excellent program put on by the local talent, also some good talks on fraternalism. This was followed by a sumptuous repast.

Mesa council is rapidly coming to the front, and we will hear more of them in the future.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS MAINTAIN STRICT NEUTRALITY IN STATE

Forcing a conflict right from the start, anti-administration members of the state central committee of the Democratic party, yesterday won all along the line, except for the election of Fred Coulter as national committee member. The lineup prevented the sought for endorsement of the Hunt administration for resolution, and showed that the opposition, sometimes referred to as the "dry faction," held the big stick in committee.

Not only did the Hunt faction, led by Mulford Winsor of Yuma, fail to enter its endorsement, but had its power of resolving curtailed, although those resolutions went national affairs, permitted under the right order, were dictated by that champion writer of glowing words, the former lead commissioner.

Right off the bat came the cleavage. No sooner had the committee met than George Billard pushed over the motion that started the fireworks.

His apparently simple motion was that a credentials committee be named, one from each county. Winsor offered an amendment, limiting the committee to five, to be named by Chairman Frank J. Duffy, a Hunt supporter. John Walsh of Graham called attention to the fact that not being a member of the committee, Winsor could not offer an amendment. Honser of Pinal, then made the Winsor motion, and on the vote, the amendment was lost, 18 to 11.

When the proxies had been read, it was found that Coulter was a state senator and a member of the committee, and also held three proxies. "This was against the state law," but Coulter, on his own choice, was permitted to exercise his proxies. The whole delegation was seated, and Winsor moved a committee on resolutions, five by the chairman. Here the previous order was reversed, and Billard moved the amendment giving each county one member of the committee. The amendment carried by the significant vote of 29 to 28. Morgan of Yavapai, seconded for the anti, moved the committee be limited to national matters. After some parliamentary confusion, Winsor's motion to table was lost by another significant vote of 12 to 25. Bailey of Yavapai, then moved a committee on method and apportionment, and the two committees were selected at once, and as follows:

Resolutions.
Coulter, Apache; Merrill, Cochise; Billard, Coconino; McGinnick, Gila; Weber, Graham; Sweeting, Greenlee; Billard, Maricopa; no delegates present, Mohave; Sawyer, Navajo; Wilson, Pinal; Miller, Santa Cruz; Morgan, Yavapai; Winsor, Yuma.

Apportionment.
Coulter, Apache; Bowen, Cochise; Billard, Coconino; Cleveland, Gila; Weber, Graham; McNeil, Greenlee; Nichols, Maricopa; Sampson, Navajo; Coulter, Pinal; Miller, Pinal; Miller, Santa Cruz; Bailey, Yavapai; Winsor, Yuma.

About this time the inner man was clamoring, but the self-satisfying democrats gladly accepted a further postponement of their high hour to hear a delegation from the Phoenix local of the Congressional Union for National Suffrage. The interview, which was totally satisfactory, to both parties, is treated in another column.

A few resounding periods preceded the prompt selection of delegates and alternates to the national convention, when the committee at 3 o'clock got back in session. Before the country delegations got lost, Billard got the committee to declare for an order of business, this being important to those who desire to have the vote on national committee member.

J. H. Morgan of Yavapai, read the resolutions, including that submitted by the suffrage workers, giving proper credit to Editor Winsor for his part in planning them. These resolutions are to be found elsewhere in this issue.

Then came the final clinch. Cochise delegation had been found necessary to the anti, in order that the interests of the opposition, in the matter of resolutions and in the selection of Delegate Douglas be understood. So, in the contest between Reese M. Ling and Fred Coulter, the Cochises were given an opportunity to show their allegiance to Governor Hunt, by putting across Coulter as national committeeman. However, it was understood that each individual should vote as he liked, and in the roll call Coulter polled 37 votes to Ling's 28.

Following Coulter's acceptance, Ling was called upon. He declared his staunch democracy and compared it rather favorably with that of "some of those who are present today."

Called to a Phoenix council next Thursday evening, March 9th, to be held at the K. of P. hall.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS
The Royal Neighbors of America is the largest fraternal beneficial society in the United States governed by women. In this month we celebrate our twenty-first anniversary and it has been designated as "Get-a-Member Month." Let every member join the "Get-a-Member club" and secure at least one new member for Pioneer camp. What a wonderful increase that would be to our camp and would require but a small effort for each one of us. Pioneer camp is planning for a big celebration and banquet on Wednesday evening, March 15, with the new members of this year as guests of honor. The Modern Woodmen are invited to enjoy the evening with us. The Royal Neighbors and Modern Woodmen of Glendale are also cordially invited to meet with us on this occasion. Anyone desiring information in regard to cost of joining and membership rates, can obtain same from any of the members or the Recorder at 1915 South First avenue, phone 3599.

ENDORSEMENT OF SUFFRAGE

Mrs. Inez Struckmeyer Proposes Resolution Favoring National Suffrage, Which Demo. Central Committee Adopts

Just when it seemed that the small of seceding cooking might be detected, the Democratic central committee meeting at the Adams hotel yesterday noon, dropped work and heard the short, pointed plea of Mrs. Inez Struckmeyer for recognition of the measure of the Susan B. Anthony amendment for national suffrage.

Intentional on her part, some committee member proposed to refer the matter to the resolutions committee. "No, they may as well," began Inez Struckmeyer. "But we don't want a referendum," cried Mrs. Struckmeyer, and in the excitement that followed, was meted what half-hearted opposition had developed. Col. J. B. Frosting moved that the resolution be adopted under suspension of the rules, but it was defeated by Dr. Sampson to fix it all up ship-shape. He moved that the resolution be sent to the committee, with instructions to embody it in the record, and this was carried.

The resolution, That we the Democratic State committee of Arizona assembled in Phoenix this 4th day of March, 1916, in response to the desires of the women voters of our state and congress to pass forthwith on to the legislatures of the separate states for ratification the Susan B. Anthony amendment, known in this congress as the Sutherland-Mondell resolution. We recommend this amendment in support of party advantage and in order that the desire that the women of America may be placed on the same political plane as the men of the nation, and because we recognize that it is unwise to delay longer the establishment of equality between the women of the east and west.

RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be sent to President Woodrow Wilson, Speaker Champ Clark, Senator Kern, majority leader in the senate, Representative Kitchen, majority leader in the house, Representative Henry, chairman of the United Committee of the House, Representative Webb, chairman of the Judiciary committee of the house and to the entire congress through the Arizona Congressional delegation to be read into the congressional record by Senator Ashurst in the senate and by Representative Eadsen in the house.

Those who accompanied Mrs. Struckmeyer on her mission were Mrs. M. E. Warren, Mrs. Rose McGarr, Mrs. E. Stella M. Kille, Mrs. W. S. Bradford, Mrs. E. Johnson, Mrs. Kate Tanager, Mrs. Mande Frazer, Mrs. Emma Davis, Mrs. J. E. Adams, Miss Georgia Orendick, Mrs. Carlton Jones, Mrs. A. E. Williams, Mrs. S. K. Vable, Miss Christie Gilchrist, all of Phoenix and Mrs. E. St. Clair Thomson and Miss Doris Stevens of the national organization of the congressional union.

MANY REJECTED FOR FLAT FEET
Six Sam Hughes would authorize the raising of a flat footed battalion to fight and defend the country.

Quota to the half million overseas force in a short time. There are many brave hearts beating over flat feet that become sad and dispirited after they have met with the medical officer at the recruiting depot.

"What has flat feet got to do with fighting in the trenches?" one level headed and level footed volunteer asked.

"They have a good deal to do with getting to the trenches," was the reply.

"But I'm on my feet all day and I stand it all right," the willing one insisted, but without avail. He is doomed to live and die in peace.

Where the flat footed man falls down is in the long, steady march with his full equipment, the man with the arch to his foot is the one that sustains the long, hard road. Sneaking on this subject, a private returned from the front said:

"If a man with flat feet had to walk as I had from Ypres to Arras, over cobbles stones as big as your fist, I'd bet he'd have a foot full of blood at the end of the journey."

And yet they say the Serbians are all flat footed!—From the Toronto Globe.

Unanimous endorsement of President Wilson and Vice-President Marshall for renomination and reelection of national women suffrage and of preferential primaries for president delegates to national conventions and of national committeemen, is voiced in the following resolution, passed unanimously by the Democratic state central committee of the Adams hotel yesterday.

THE ONLY PIANO STORE IN THE WORLD WHERE YOU CAN FIND THESE CONDITIONS

Is it Not Better to Select Your Piano From Over Twenty Makes of the World's Best Pianos and Make That Selection From One Stock in One Room, Where All Pianos Are Under the Same Conditions, Than to be Obligated to First Go to One Store and Then to Another?

The first time you find the piano that you like best can only be judged by you when the pianos are side by side.

The only piano store in the world where you can find and be able to judge for yourself nearly all of the celebrated high-grade pianos made in the great musical instrument producing centers of the world. In the important cities of all parts of the world you find the great line of over twenty different makes of pianos handled by one leading Arizona music house, but in every other case them right here in Phoenix you find them divided into different piano stores. In some cities almost every make is represented by different musical instrument houses. With hardly an exception you find the Polar Music, the old time featured piano handled by one piano house and in that same city some other store will sell the Steinway and still another store the Ives & Bond, and another store will sell possibly almost exclusively the Yoe & Sons, another dealer handling the A. E. Chase and some other dealer the Koller & Campbell, the Autopiano, the Rembrandt, the Pangeow Player Piano and all of the others handled by the Redwell Music Company in different stores.

Think what it means to find all of the makes in one store, the greatest line of pianos any dealer could possibly get together, and under one roof where you can judge the true tone of each individual piano, where you can find in one room, and under the same conditions in no other store in the entire world. Can you find this selection of instruments.

The house of Redwell is financially able to make exceptional easy payments. This means everything to the piano purchaser. Their ability to buy at the lowest possible price and pass it on to the manufacturer, this also means everything to the piano purchaser.

Their 42 years in the piano business and their slogan quick sales, small profit, a large volume of business has made for them and their organization by far the leading music house of Arizona. The giving of MUSIC LESSONS FREE is the latest, greatest special offer to the piano customer, for many homes did not feel able to make the regular weekly or monthly payments on a piano and in addition pay for music lessons. It is conditional, however, that if you accept the music lesson free offer your piano payments must be made at the store of the Redwell Music Company, thus saving them the expense of a collector.

When things were put over and shoved through and the losing leaders threatened to hit the ceiling, old ceiling looked awful near. But, in compliance to the courteous and self-controlled members, it must be said that the ceiling was not even approached.
